Texas Memories

BY ANGELUS

No. 1.

In the summer of 1860 while the conventions were nominating their various candidates for the Presidential chair in that summer I was in Sugar Land, a settlement in Fort Bend County Texas. The few who had kept the run of public affairs, and had heard the murmurs of indignation approaching nearly to hatred against the North from the time of the John Brown incident, felt that on the result of the coming fall election hung the fate of a nation. You at the North saw and heard the same but it was set down to South Carolinian spite, to Southern brag, to everything in fact but what it really was, and has since proved itself to be viz a well laid and determined plan of many years' growth to separate from the free States upon the first pretext. In earlier years had the plot almost ripened, but the bud was bruised and crushed by the superhuman exertions and wondrous brains of certain men who saved their country for the time being. Alas! their mantle has fallen upon none of the present time. Where are our great men so much needed now? Are they all gone? Is there no mind that can direct us out of the labyrinth in which that miserable apology of a man, James Buchanan, has led us? Oh a country's curses, not low nor soft but deep and loud will ever follow him. Miserable man—live on—there is no duty to pay your dreams.

During this summer several small villages were set on fire, throughout Texas—valuable negroes were missing, and fine horses run off. Query. Who has done this—what is the cause? All through the South comes the answer—the negroes, incited by Abolitionists, by white rovers of the North. Down, down with them is the cry. Hang to the first tree the Northerner caught tampering with the blacks. Ministers stop your afternoon sermons on the plantations—there is treason in the book you read to them. Is it not therein written, "let my people go free." School teachers, watch them in particular. Such was the hue and cry at that time raised against innocent people, solely for the reason that there was Northern blood in their veins. For weeks was there a daily watch upon our actions—listeners at the key hole to hear if one word was spoken of the times, and what that word was. followers if a step was taken outside the door after dark, and an almost determined will to find you in the wrong any way. Traveling agents were particularly distasteful the to sensitive Southerner, and in accordance with these feelings, in the month of August two map agents from Ohio were "easily located" of the heinous fault of talking with and inciting the negroes. They were put on trial at Richmond, a town on the Brazos—with no council—and the question was, shall they be hung or not? If guilty, the penalty a tree a rope no prayer, no defense, no plea. Search and witnesses could prove nothing against them, still the jury stood seven to hang them instantly—five undecided, wavering. A second jury was formed and the result was they were to be sent out of the country. They were put under guard (their possessions appropriated) and sent on the first boat that left Galveston for New York.—Doubtless they deemed the verdict unjust, but thanked God their lives were spared.

And such was the fate that awaited any upon whom the breath of suspicion might fall. And instead of growing better, opinion only strengthened as the election drew near. As the result of it was known, that Lincoln was fairly elected, everywhere was heard the word secede—withdraw from all connection with the Abolitionists. To a Southern man every Northerner is a d—d Yankee", and every Yankee is perforce an Abolitionist, and every Abolitionist is plotting the freedom of the slaves. Col. Terry (since killed in one of the Kentucky battles) was the man of 'Sugar Land' and extremely influential. He, with a few others, started to ascertain who would enroll their names to go to the war, who would give horses, and how many, to fit out their company. And by the time South Carolina had withdrawn herself and a few other States were made enough to join in her folly, the leaders of Texas were ready to bring her high and dry out of the Union, that Union which had fought her battles kept off the Mexican power and paid her debts. Oh! Texas owed nothing to the Union, and with that double-faced leader the redoubtable Twiggs, to help her she coolly took possession of United States property at San Antonio, worth over a million of dollars. Of all the seceding States she had the least cause, was the most ungrateful, and may her punishment be the heaviest. Every finger should point toward her with scorn until, if there is enough honor left in her she sinks and hides in shame.

THURSDAY MORNING, JAN 8 1863

State Lands---Their Uses.

The State of Oregon is the owner of six hundred and eighty eight thousand five hundred and sixty acres of land which have been given to her by the General Government, under certain conditions. Of this vast area, seventy two entire sections are for the support of a State University ten entire sections for the construction of public buildings, twelve salt springs with six entire sections around each of them five hundred thousand acres under the provisions of the Act of Congress of the 4th day of September 1841 ninety thousand acres to endow an Agricultural College and all swamp and overflowed lands and the usual allowance of school lands for each township.

Here is a vast domain which only needs judicious management to produce enough in the course of time, to build up State and local institutions of learning which will afford an education to every child living within the borders of the State. The location of these lands has hitherto been neglected. Recently Gov Gibbs has taken upon himself the performance of a duty which belonged in part to his predecessors—the location of the lands. He has selected about six thousand acres, and they have been set aside to the uses of the State, he has fixed upon seventy thousand acres more, which will become the property of the State, as soon as the necessary papers can be signed, and has designated two salt springs which will be shortly set aside to the State, with the surrounding lands. We desire to see him prosecute this segregation of our lands from those of the General Government as rapidly as possible. The Governor is ex officio Land Commissioner, and may employ one person to assist him in the selection of these lands, and may incur all expenses to secure the interests of the State and do all needful things pertaining to them. This is in accordance with a law made at the last session of the legislature.

It is pertinent to the subject under consideration, to call attention to the mode of organizing the public institutions of learning, endowed by the gifts of the nation. The importance of introducing military exercises and giving rudimentary military instruction at the State University and Agricultural College, must occur to every reflecting mind. It is in consequence of military training received at the Southern military academies, and even in their common schools, that the Unionists have had such frequent occasions to regret the activity and skill of the minor officers in the revolted States, and it is on account of the neglect of needful military instruction that the lives of our brave troops have been so often and so needlessly sacrificed. No nation can be a great military power unless she has a large portion of her population habituated to the use of arms, and no army can be effective unless the officers of the line are skilled in the duties of their positions. With this advantage, imbecility in a general cannot disgrace an army, without it, no ability in a commander can lead it with any certainty that his plans will not be defeated for lack of co-operation. The necessities of the times demand an increase of the military spirit. The time is coming, after our present difficulties are healed up, when our claim to dominion on this continent will be challenged by the nations of Western Europe. The first indication of it is now visible in the French interference in Mexico; we shall see more of it as the necessity of colonizing the surplus population of worn out Europe becomes more pressing. Above all other States in the Union this State is exposed to foreign invasion, and above all others the people should be prepared to repel it. Not the slightest reasonable objection can be raised to military instruction in our public schools and institutions. It lends dignity to the character, teaches self control, subdues the aggressive temper of the young and developes in advance the characteristics of men so that when danger comes we may know who are capable of leading. If properly applied the prodigal generosity of the General Government may be made of an estimable utility.

PROTEST.—On account of the proposed division of Washington Territory by Mr Kellogg the Legislature of that community have deemed it best to take action thereon, by protesting against any legislation on the subject until the views of the people can be made known. This has been done by a protest, unofficially signed by a majority of both houses of the Territorial Legislature and by every member who was asked to sign it but the member from Nez Perces county. The protest has been transmitted by telegraph, and will doubtless effect the action of Congress on the subject. It is only right that it should do so.

THE WEATHER ABOVE DALLES.—At Lewiston the weather is very mild, the thermometer is standing at 40 degrees above zero, in the middle of the day. From Walla Walla we learn that the weather is unusually favorable for the season. Light snows fall in day time and go off with the Chinook winds at night.

A great deal of eulogy has been exhausted on Stonewall Jackson's army, because it marched without camp equipage or baggage of any kind. That is, they did not have any of the articles they are praised for not carrying and had been worked into a state of mind and body by physical suffering that they were willing to fight to the last extremity to get as much food as would satisfy their appetites, or even for a pair of shoes.

Mr L A Mullan, who has been connected with the mail contracts awarded in the mining districts, has been arranging matters to undertake the service at $74 000 a year, and is quite surprised, according to the Lewiston Age, to find that he is to get only $22 500. We would like to know how it is that a contract can be awarded to any person unless he has bid for it, and if he has done so he ought to know how much he is to get for it.

The Eugene City Review has thrown off its flimsy veil of neutrality and comes out "Democratic." The Confederate armies are filled with Democrats of the Review's stamp. But we do not object to this so much as we do to the dodge of hoisting one flag when you leave port and another when you are at sea. The Alabama did the same thing. She was a British ship until she got her men and armament aboard and then became a Confederate pirate.

Proclamation by the Governor

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, PORTLAND, OREGON, January 6, 1863

By the President of the United States, through Brigadier General George Wright, commanding the Department of the Pacific, and Brigadier General Benjamin Alvord, commanding the District of Oregon, I have been requested to raise six additional companies required to complete the 1st Regiment of Cavalry Oregon Volunteers. They will be needed the coming Spring on the frontiers of this State and Washington Territory, and for an expedition against the Snake Indians, who have so long been mercilessly engaged in robbing emigrants and murdering our fellow citizens. I cannot doubt that the citizens of Oregon, who have always promptly responded to any demand for their military services, will in like manner respond to this call thereby showing their loyalty to the Government and aiding in chastising marauding bands of Indians which infest our frontiers.

The enlisted men, when mounted, will be supplied with horses by the United States, it being understood that they will be mounted or not, as shall be deemed advisable by the Government.

Propositions to raise a whole company, which will furnish their own horses and horse equipments, may be entertained. The men are in such cases entitled to forty cents a day for the use and risk of their horses and horse equipments.

Each company will consist of one hundred enlisted men and when mustered into the service of the United States to serve for three years, unless sooner discharged.

Recruiting offices will be immediately opened at Portland, Dalles City, and perhaps at other places. By the Governor,

ADDISON C GIBBS

CYRUS A. REED, Adjutant General.

NOT DEAD YET.—We cannot forego the satisfaction of announcing to our readers the continued existence of the organ of the Cayuse Chivalry, the Corvallis Union. The issue of that paper for the 3d of January gives us reason to hope that 'while the lamp holds out to burn the vilest sinner may return,' as witness the following extract:

The events which have transpired within that period, and which filled us at the time with emotions of fear, shame sorrow and indignation have now and forever passed into History, and 1862 stands forth a memorable era never never to be forgotten while the name of the great American Union is known. There were deeds done, scenes enacted and recorded that will one fear, redound to our eternal infamy.

But Malone is not altogether penitent, but still hopes for a re organization of the Democracy. On this subject he says:

But amidst the darkness and gloom there is a cheering ray of light! A star ascends in the East raising our hopes and dissolving one spot in the gloom that afflicts the land. It is the Star Democracy. It mounts the horizon with healing on its wings. It sheds its benign and softening influence down through the chaos of fanaticism and folly.

We move to amend the above by making the 'Star Democracy' read the Star Whisky Democracy.

PLENTY OF SNOW.—We learn that the snow was eighteen inches deep at Dalles, yesterday morning. Here in the blessed land of web foot, we have great reason to be thankful for the mildness of the weather.

SCENE IN THE SENATE.—The Chicago Washington letter of the 21st of December gives this description of the Senate on the first day of the session:

The shifting light of the cloudy and dark December day was strained and further softened as it fell through the ground glass of the Senate Chamber, but dimly filling the gorgeous internal recesses of the room. On the tapestried floor were slowly circulating the massive Senators, exchanging hearty and even affectionate greetings as they met after their vacation. There was burly Ben Wade of Ohio always having a ripple of smiles behind him; Wilson, of Massachusetts rosy, portly and with a flash of military coat in his waistcoat at front; Vermont Proll in pretension of the Senate; a man of magnificent size and presence. Sumner with his Cyclopean massively grizzled eye glass on nose and drawing a knife of fresh rear and him wherever he goes. There was the dapper form of McDougall of California, his head whiter than ever and his legs half buried in military boots. He is joking with Latham (just subsidy about his last appearance any stage whatever), who is stroking his snowy curling whiskers and pulling out of his old steel blue eyes. At the right of the President's stand is Harding the new Senator from Oregon who has just been inaugurated one of the elder Senators by his gentlemanly colleague Nesmith. The new Oregonian will have more polish on him when he vacates his seat March 1865. There is the tall and elegant form of Jim Lane of Kansas, he is earnestly talking with Forney, the good looking dark haired and well dressed Clerk of the Senate. Lane looks cadaverous, nervous and somewhat repellant withal. All these and more dot in groups over the sombrely glowing floor of the chamber and above them the galleries rise with their crowds. Ships every seat being filled except where the crimson benches of that portion of the gallery reserved for the diplomatic corps gleam out exclusive and untenanted, among the crowds of men and brightly dressed women. Over all the panneled ceiling rich in gold and color gleams with subdued light a single ray of sunlight irradiating the whole gloom as the single rap of Senator Foot's hammer on the desk of the President of the Senate called the Senate to order at twelve o'clock noon and the last session of the present Congress had begun.

Coughs—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to Brown's Bronchial Troches, or Lozenges for the Cure Cough or Irritation of the Throat to which slight attacks this preparation is a sure remedy, as attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement. decl6da3m

White's Fever and Ague Drops—For the cure of AGUE, CHILLS, FEVER, NEURALGIA and GENERAL DEBILITY.

This medicine has been used in private practice for many years with great success. Indeed in no instance has it failed to effect a speedy cure, the Ague especially one bottle having been found sufficient in most cases and in none are more than two bottles required.

A great number of testimonials could be given to verify these statements but the proprietor prefers relying upon the merits of the medicine alone. A cure is guaranteed in nine cases out of ten.

White's Patent Lever Trusses.—These instruments are recommended to the public as the best ever yet inquented. The principle is new and different from any other. The pad works over a knuckle giving it a circular INWARD and UPWARD motion, thus being able to support the rupture with half the pressure required by other Trusses. The pain consequent upon heavy pressure is thereby avoided.

These instruments will not rust and are the lightest most durable and most cleanly of all others. They can be washed at pleasure. Many persons have been cured by them of rupture of several years standing.

The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

CITY COUNCIL.—There was no quorum of the City Council at the Council Room last evening. It has become the fashion of that body to meet every once in a long time, whenever it pleases the members. This ought to be broken up, or members who are refractory should be compelled to attend. As the matter now stands, the Council meetings have become a farce, with many of the funny elements omitted.

READ THEM.—We commence to-day the publication of a series of contributions in regard to the outbreak of the rebellion in Texas. They are written by a lady who was a resident of that State at the time, and the facts will have all the freshness derived from actual observation. We commend them to the attention of those who do not believe the South commenced the war, but is resisting subjugation.

THE EIGHTH OF JANUARY.—To-day is the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans, won by Andrew Jackson and his brave soldiers—one of the most honorable events in our history. Andrew Jackson is dead; there are none like him now living.

LARCENY.—John Fogel was committed to jail on the charge of larceny, in default of $300 bail. The complaint sets forth that certain clothing was missing through Fogel's instrumentality.

DISORDERLY.—Louis Martin was sent five days to jail by the Recorder, for disorderly conduct; all for the lack of $10 to pay his fine.

FAVORS.—We are under repeated obligations to Wells, Fargo & Co., for prompt delivery of papers from up the Columbia, and correspondence.

FOR THIS PORT.—The steamer Sierra Nevada sailed from San Francisco to this place last evening, according to arrangement.

LEWISTON NEWS.—We condense the following from the Age of the 3d inst.:

A large meeting had been held in Lewiston to consider the division of the Territory of Washington, and to petition Congress to organize a new Territory out of the eastern part of it to be called Lafayette.

One of the soldiers at Fort Lapwai, named Nichols, killed a comrade named Sprague on Christmas day. It was thought to be an accident.

The miners on the bars of Salmon river are doing well. Messrs. Wood & Co., have a claim just above John Day's creek, which yields from $7 to $20 per day to the hand. Johnston & Co. are making from $6 to $10. Messrs. Thos. Meritt & Co. have an excellent claim, and are taking out from $12 to $16 per day. Two Irish companies in the immediate vicinity, have fine claims, and are doing well. Liard & Co. have been doing remarkably well lately—their future prospects are as good as any on the river. Most of these claims are in the vicinity of John Day's creek, which is a small stream about six miles or less from Slate creek. These diggings extend into the side hills, much above the highest water mark known.

Quite an excitement exists in Oro Fino, as well as in Lewiston, in consequence of some new discoveries in hill diggings. It seems some parties have believed that gold existed in the streets of Oro Fino. After consultation they commenced digging between Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express office and Schenck's Saloon, and in a few hours their anticipations were more than realized—claims were immediately staked off, and now the whole of Centre street has been dug over, and the results for hill diggings have satisfactorily proved that, the hills which surround Oro Fino will pay remarkably well during the coming season, with plenty of water. All of the hills in the vicinity, are filled with paying dirt, and it is only a question of time how soon they will be made to yield up their hidden treasures.

One of the soldiers of our army, belonging to Capt. Knox's command, stationed at Lapway, deserted on Saturday last, and left for parts unknown. He was caught on Sunday, up Snake River, by a party in pursuit, and returned to more uncomfortable quarters. His name was Chapman, we believe. Cause of desertion, didn't want to stay.

WALLA WALLA NEWS.—From the Statesman of the 3d of January we compile the following:

The fine weather, together with the highly favorable late news from Boise has given a new impetus to emigration in that direction. During the week small trains have been leaving this city at almost every hour in the day for the new Eldorado. The rush in that direction is not dissimilar to that made to Florence last Winter.

A man named Samuel Vaughn was killed on Saturday night last, at La Rock's ranch, on Walla Walla River, by a man named David Boyd. A Coroner's inquest rendered a verdict in accordance with the above. Boyd has escaped in the direction of Boise.

A cutting affray occurred in this city on Thursday, between two men, in which one, named John Gayney, was so badly mutilated from a knife in the hands of the other that he will probably die of his wounds. An examination of the case will be had to-day.

E. H. Barron has given notice that the suit between him and the city of Walla Walla, for the S. W. qr. of the S. W. qr. sec. 20 will be appealed to the General Land Office at Washington.

A meeting was held at Walla Walla on the 31st of December, to take into consideration the subject of opening books to receive subscriptions of stock for building the railroad from Wallula to Walla Walla, for which a charter has been obtained. It was determined to commence operations at once, and responsible gentlemen were elected to receive subscriptions, among whom are Messrs. Ruckle and Ainsworth of Portland; Judge Wyche and Thomas H. Smith at Vancouver; O. Hamason and H. P. Isaacs, Dalles, and Capt. John Mullan, New York. It is believed that the stock subscription will reach $500,000 at once.

GOLD HILL MINES.—These mines in Nevada Territory, which have been regarded as rather insecure, are now rendered safe by timbering, filling in of cribs of dirt and other measures, thus preventing the settling of the roof. The companies on the hill are generally doing well and getting out good ore.

Portland R. A. Chapter No. 3.—There will be a Convocation of Portland R. A. Chapter No. 3, on THURSDAY EVENING, at 7 o'clock P. M. precisely.

Companions and sojourning companions are requested to attend punctually. by order of M. E. H. P.

DOCTOR VAN ZANDT,
CONSULTING PHYSICIAN & SURGEON,
Office, Corner of Washington and Sansome streets, San Francisco.

The GREAT SUCCESS of the CENTURY in an Aid to PRACTICAL MEDICINE.

The Mysterious Problem of Vitality of Nature, Electricity, made subject each day to the Cure of all Nervous and Spinal Diseases.

THAT THIS PRINCIPLE SUCCESSFULLY APPLIED to diseases of the system, acts upon the great nerve-motor necessity, being a curative by natural laws, to aid the transmission of vital force, organic and functional changements of the human body. It is a common fact, a great principle of natural law which governs animal and inorganic, and necessarily must have much to do in alleviating disordered action.

Too Much Cannot be Said

in its praises; for it is highly probable that in health there is an exact equilibrium of the Electric principle; and should this secret and sublime principle of health be lessened or lower—should the body be negatively electrified with it, should be positively charged—is not the current broken, and is there not a war of forces going on in the system? This needs correcting, and in order that the tissues of the body should be perceptible to remedial agents, we must first restore and

Awaken the Magnetic Life within us

The spinal and sympathetic nerve systems. Believing as I do most firmly in this great magnetic or electrical intensity of the earth, with its influence upon our bodies in health and disease, I am led to take advantage of the Press, through which to awaken attention to the subject, that good may come to all

No Compromise with Disease.

Give the body strength, and nature will relieve herself. Purify the life-blood, regulate the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and all the natural functions, and cure by ELECTRICAL excitation, and at once the aged, the pained, the nervous, the dispirited, the melancholic, the dyspeptic and the invalid revive under its benign influence.

To the Ladies of California.

Dr. Van Zandt's success with complaints of women, both in family and office practice, is owing to his correct views of the origin of all their maladies. Ladies can consult him with entire confidence, as he is an specialist upon human life—but is proving himself the only member of the legitimate profession in California who is really successful in removing those ills which are the peculiar provinces of the sex. His high appreciation of their delicately attuned nervous organism, together with their great sympathetic life, renders him doubly able to assuage those silent complaints which they bear so patiently and so long. No social disquietude need longer exist out of home circles; for he can awaken the stricken energies; restore the wounded tonicity of the body; awaken the melancholic and despondings; arrest those drains which cause so much anxiety; cure those protean maladies which have so long

Baffled the Skill of Physicians.

Develope appetite, life and animation, dispel nervous headache, flushing at the stomach, wandering pains, wasting away of strength; extreme debility and lifelessness, hectic cough, sleeplessness, unpleasant dreams and that general depression of life's powers, which go to render that life a misery and death a boon. Dr. Van Zandt, with his new method of exciting the Electro-Galvanic current, together with his remedial measures which are adapted to the necessities of California, will assure you of a complete and radical recovery of all bodily and mental infirmities, and will restore you to usefulness, and spare you a blessing to your family and society.

All the world over

where no disease exists, whether special to the soil and climate or common to all regions—epidemic or casual, acute or chronic, contagious or non-contagious—it is as necessary to restore the ELECTRO-GALVANIC equilibrium, especially in California, as it is to give food to the starving. This statement is based upon a series of facts extending through many years, and verified by hundreds of patients; so that no principle of science, no rule of experience, no result of any well known cause, rests upon more pure and unassailable foundations, than those which underlie the world-wide reputation of Electricity for the cure of all nervous states of the body, faulty digestion, mental and physical debility or prostration, coughs, asthma, wandering pains of a rheumatic, gouty or mercurial character, and all forms of disease, the result of scrofula or cachectic habit of body.

None Need Despair of Relief.

If you have ulcers which will not heal—pains that cannot be removed—melancholy which you cannot shake off—loss of power which you cannot regain—depression of spirits which weigh you down—weakness that knows no sleeping—business that languishes for want of energy—a void which no society can fill—suspicion which no assurance can allay—Go to Dr. Van Zandt, for his great success and the safety with which he administers his new method of electrical excitation, together with his remedies, which are adapted to the requirements of climate and constitution, will assure you of a complete and radical removal of all bodily and mental infirmities, within the scope of science and man to remove.

The Eye and Ear Diseases.

It must not be forgotten by the eye and ear sufferers that Dr Van Zandt has made these affections a special study, and that he is the only Surgeon in our State who has a diploma for that branch of practice. Very many of the eye and ear troubles are purely deranged nervous action, and are cured by his electro-galvanic battery—as amaurosis, squinting, cataract, floating specks before the vision, twitching of the eyelids, nervous deafness, roaring and buzzing noises in the ears, giddiness, etc. All operations successfully done on those delicate organs of sense.

DR. BAKER'S
PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can almost sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to, and the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

THURSDAY MORNING, JAN 8 1863

State Lands—Their Uses.

The State of Oregon is the owner of six hundred and eighty eight thousand five hundred and sixty acres of land which have been given to her by the General Government, under certain conditions Of this vast area, seventy two entire sections are for the support of a State University ten entire sections for the construction of public buildings, twelve salt springs with six entire sections around each of them five hundred thousand acres under the provisions of the Act of Congress of the 4th day of September, 1841 ninety thousand acres to endow an Agricultural College and all swamp and overflowed lands and the usual allowance of school lands for each township

Here is a vast domain which only needs judicious management to produce enough, in the course of time to build up State and local institutions of learning which will afford an education to every child living within the borders of the State The location of these lands has hitherto been neglected Recently, Gov. Gibbs has taken upon himself the performance of a duty which belonged in part to his predecessors—the location of the lands. He has selected about six thousand acres, and they have been set aside to the uses of the State, he has fixed upon seventy thousand acres more, which will become the property of the State, as soon as the necessary papers can be signed, and has designated two salt springs which will be shortly set aside to the State, with the surrounding lands We desire to see him prosecute this segregation of our lands from those of the General Government as rapidly as possible The Governor is ex officio Land Commissioner, and may employ one person to assist him in the selection of these lands, and may incur all expenses to secure the interests of the State and do all needful things pertaining to them. This is in accordance with a law made at the last session of the legislature.

It is pertinent to the subject under consideration, to call attention to the mode of organizing the public institutions of learning, endowed by the gifts of the nation The importance of introducing military exercises and giving rudimentary military instruction at the State University and Agricultural College, must occur to every reflecting mind It is in consequence of military training received at the Southern military academies, and even in their common schools, that the Unionists have had such frequent occasions to regret the activity and skill of the minor officers in the revolted States, and it is on account of the neglect of needful military instruction that the lives of our brave troops have been so often and so needlessly sacrificed No nation can be a great military power unless she has a large portion of her population habituated to the use of arms, and no army can be effective unless the officers of the line are skilled in the duties of their positions With this advantage, imbecility in a general cannot disgrace an army, without it, no ability in a commander can lead it with any certainty that his plans will not be defeated for lack of co-operation The necessities of the times demand an increase of the military spirit The time is coming, after our present difficulties are healed up, when our claim to dominion on this continent will be challenged by the nations of Western Europe The first indication of it is now visible in the French interference in Mexico, we shall see more of it as the necessity of colonizing the surplus population of worn out Europe becomes more pressing Above all other States in the Union this State is exposed to foreign invasion, and above all others the people should be prepared to repel it. Not the slightest reasonable objection can be raised to military instruction in our public schools and institutions It lends dignity to the character, teaches self-control, subdues the aggressive temper of the young and developes in advance the characteristics of men, so that when danger comes we may know who are capable of leading If properly applied the prodigal generosity of the General Government may be made of inestimable utility

PROTEST—On account of the proposed division of Washington Territory by Mr Kellogg, the Legislature of that community have deemed it best to take action thereon, by protesting against any legislation on the subject until the views of the people can be made known This has been done by a protest, unofficially signed by a majority of both houses of the Territorial Legislature and by every member who was asked to sign it but the member from Nez Perces county The protest has been transmitted by telegraph, and will doubtless effect the action of Congress on the subject It is only right that it should do so

THE WEATHER ABOVE DALLES—At Lewiston the weather is very mild the thermometer is standing at 45 degrees above zero, in the middle of the day From Walla Walla we learn that the weather is unusually favorable for the season Light snows fall in day time, and go off with the Chinook winds" at night

Proclamation by the Governor.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, PORTLAND OREGON, January 6 1863

By the President of the United States, through Brigadier General George Wright, commanding the Department of the Pacific, and Brigadier General Benjamin Alvord, commanding the District of Oregon, I have been requested to raise six additional companies required to complete the 1st Regiment of Cavalry, Oregon Volunteers They will be needed the coming Spring on the frontiers of this State and Washington Territory and for an expedition against the Snake Indians, who have so long been mercilessly engaged in robbing emigrants and murdering our fellow-citizens I cannot doubt that the citizens of Oregon, who have always promptly responded to any demand for their military services, will in like manner respond to this call, thereby showing their loyalty to the Government, and aiding in chastising marauding bands of Indians which infest our frontiers

The enlisted men, when mounted will be supplied with horses by the United States, it being understood that they will be mounted do not, as shall be deemed advisable by the Government

Propositions to raise in whole company, which will furnish their own horses and horse equipments, may be entertained The men are in such cases entitled to forty cents a day for the use and risk of their horses and horse equipments

Each company will consist of one hundred enlisted men and when mustered into the service of the United States to serve for three years, unless sooner discharged

Recruiting offices will be immediately opened at Portland, Dalles City, and perhaps at other places By the Governor,

ADDISON C GIBBS

CYRUS A REED, Adjutant General

NOT DEAD YET—We cannot forego the satisfaction of announcing to our readers the continued existence of the organ of the Cayuse Chivalry, the Corvallis Union The issue of that paper for the 1st of January gives us reason to hope that "while the lamp holds out to burn the vilest sinner may return," as witness the following extract

The events which have transpired within that period, and which filled us at the time with emotions of fear, shame sorrow and indignation have now and forever passed into History, and 1862 stands forth a memorable era never, never to be forgotten while the name of the great American Union is known There were deeds done scenes enacted and recorded, that will, we fear, redound to our eternal infamy

But Malone is not altogether penitent, but still hopes for a reorganization of the Democracy On this subject he says

But amidst the darkness and gloom there is a cheering ray of light! A star ascends in the East raising our hopes and dissolving one spot in the gloom that afflicts the land It is the Star Democracy! It mounts the horizon with healing on its wings It sheds its benign and softening influence down through the chaos of fanaticism and folly

We move to amend the above by making the 'Star Democracy' read the Star Whisky Democracy'

PLENTY OF SNOW—We learn that the snow was eighteen inches deep at Dalles, yesterday morning Here in the blessed land of web foot, we have great reason to be thankful for the mildness of the weather.

SENATE IN THE SENATE—The Washington letter of the 1st of December, gives this description of the Senate, on the first day of the session

The shifting light of the cloudy and dark December day was strained and further softened as it fell through the ground glass of the Senate Chamber but dimly filling the gorgeous and ornate recesses of the room On the tapestried floor were slowly circulating the grave Senators exchanging hearty and even affectionate greetings as they met after the vacation There was burly Ben Wade of Ohio always leaving a ripple of smiles behind him Wilson of Massachusetts, rosy hearty and with a dash of military in his waistcoat Foot of Vermont President pro tem of the Senate, a man of long unbroken official presence Sumner, with his hair prematurely grizzled eyed glass on nose and thrawn, as usual Senators around him wherever he goes There is the dapper form of McDougall of California the best whiter than ever and his locks had in long military ties Hemp Wilkinson, with Latham (possibly about his last appearance on any stage whatever) who is straining his eyes by curling whiskers and smiling out of his cold steel blue eyes At the right of the President's stand is Harding the new Senator from Oregon who has just been introduced some of the older Senators by his gold headed cane Nesmith The new Oregonian will have more polish on him when he vacates his seat March 1865 There is the tall and elegant form of Jim Lane of Kansas he is earnestly talking with Fessenden the good looking dark haired and well dressed Clerk of the Senate Lane looks careworn and nervous and somewhat repellant withal All these and more dot in groups over the soberly glowing floor of the chamber and above them the galleries rise with their crowded slips every seat being filled except where the Brunson beauties of that portion of the gallery reserved for the diplomatic corps gleam out exclusive and untenanted, among the crowds of men and brightly dressed women Over all the panneled ceiling with its rich gold and color gleams with subdued light a single ray of sunlight irradiating the white gloom as the single rap of Senator Foot's hammer on the desk of the President of the Senate called the Senate to order at twelve o'clock noon, and the last session of the present Congress had begun

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are a prolific source of Pulmonary Bronchitis and Asthmatic Affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease recourse should at once be had to Brown's Bronchial Troches, or Lozenges let the Cold Cough or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight as by this precaution more serious attack may be effectually warded off PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing an hoarse throat before the voice becomes fatigued

This medicine has been used in private practice for many years with great success Indeed in no instance has it failed to effect a speedy cure, in Ague especially, one bottle having been found sufficient in most cases and in none are more than two bottles required

A great number of testimonials could be given to verify these statements but the proprietor prefers relying upon the merits of the medicine alone A cure is guaranteed in nine cases out of ten

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

CITY COUNCIL —There was no quorum of the City Council at the Council Room last evening It has become the fashion of that body to meet every once in a long time when ever it pleases the members This ought to be broken up or members who are refractory should be compelled to attend As the matter now stands the Council meetings have become a farce with many of the funny elements omitted

READ THEM —We commence to day the publication of a series of contributions in regard to the outbreak of the rebellion in Texas They are written by a lady who was a resident of that State at the time and the facts will have all the freshness derived from actual observation We commend them to the attention of those who do not believe the South commenced the war, but is resisting subjugation

THE EIGHTH OF JANUARY —To day is the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans won by Andrew Jackson and his brave soldiers—one of the most honorable events in our history Andrew Jackson is dead there are none like him now living

LARCENY —John Fugel was committed to jail on the charge of larceny, in default of $300 bail The complaint sets forth that certain clothing was missing through Fugel's instrumentality

DISORDERLY —Louis Martin was sent five days to jail by the Recorder for disorderly conduct, all for the lack of $10 to pay his fine.

FAVORS.—We are under repeated obligations to Wells, Fargo & Co for prompt delivery of papers from up the Columbia, and Independence

FOR THIS PORT —The steamer Sierra Nevada sailed from San Francisco to this place last evening, according to arrangement

LEWISTON NEWS —We condense the following from the Age of the 3d inst

A large meeting had been held in Lewiston to consider the division of the Territory of Washington, and to petition Congress to organize a new Territory out of the eastern part of it to be called Lafayette

One of the soldiers at Fort Lapwai, named Nichols, killed a comrade named Sprague on Christmas day It was thought to be an accident.

The miners on the bars of Salmon river are doing well Messrs Wood & Co, have a claim just above John Day's creek which yields from $7 to $20 per day to the hand Johnson & Co are making from $6 to $10 Messrs Merritt & Co have an excellent claim, and are taking out from $12 to $16 per day. Two Irish companies in the immediate vicinity, have fine claims, and are doing well Lieut & Co have been doing remarkably well lately their future prospects are as good as any on the river. Most of these claims are in the vicinity of John Day's creek, which is a small stream about six miles or less from that creek. These diggings extend into the hills, much above the highest water mark known

Quite an excitement exists in Oro Fino, as well as in Lewiston, in consequence of some new discoveries in hill diggings It seems some parties have believed that gold existed in the streets of Oro Fino After consultation they commenced digging between Wells, Fargo & Co's express office and Schenck's Saloon, and in a few hours their anticipations were more than realized—claims were immediately staked off, and now the whole of Centre street has been dug over, and the results for hill diggings have satisfactorily proved that, the hills which surround Oro Fino will pay remarkably well during the coming season, with plenty of water All of the hills in the vicinity, are filled with paying dirt and it is only a question of time how soon they will be made to yield up their hidden treasures

One of the soldiers of our army, belonging to Capt. Knox's command, stationed at Lapwai, deserted on Saturday last, and left for parts unknown He was caught on Sunday on Snake River, by a party in pursuit, and returned to more uncomfortable quarters His name was Chapman, we believe Cause of desertion, didn't want to stay

WALLA WALLA NEWS —From the Statesman of the 3d of January we compile the following:

The fine weather, together with the highly favorable late news from Boise has given a new impetus to emigration in that direction During the week small trains have been leaving this city at almost every hour in the day for the new Eldorado The rush in that direction is not dissimilar to that made to Florence last Winter.

A man named Samuel Vaughn was killed on Saturday night last, at La Rock's ranch on Walla Walla River by a man named David Boyd. A Coroner's inquest rendered a verdict in accordance with the above Boyd has escaped in the direction of Boise

A cutting affray occurred in this city on Thursday, between two men in which one named John Garney, was so badly mutilated from a knife in the hands of the other that he will probably die of his wounds An examination of the case will be had to day

E H. Barron has given notice that the suit between him and the city of Walla Walla for the S W qr of the S W qr sec 20 will be appealed to the General Land Office at Washington.

A meeting was held at Walla Walla on the 31st of December, to take into consideration the subject of opening books to receive subscriptions of stock for building the railroad from Walkula to Walla Walla for which a charter has been obtained It was determined to commence operations at once and responsible gentlemen were elected to receive subscriptions among whom are Messrs Ruckle and Ainsworth of Portland Judge Wyche and Thomas H Smith at Vancouver O Hunsaker and H P Isaacs Dalles and Capt John Mullan, New York It is believed that the stock subscription will reach $500 000 at once.

The Noble Farmer

BY MRS. SIGOURNEY.

Agriculture is the most healthy, the most useful, and the most noble employment of man.—George Washington.

What hurrying from the fevered town,
With joyless forms of vacancy crowned
Fain would I turn to meet the hour
From earth's dark vest forth bound—
Where cradled on the mother's breast
The Nursery sublime
The first the greatest of all realms
A king, in fee of all the clime
Restores to rural haunts of weal
His empire—while the lowly
A blessed family
That glory never pass

Where mid his sons exulting sits
Who early taught to explore the soil
The generous fruit to elicit forth
With nurture and with toil
Whose cheerful mien betokens well
From conquest over care
Which smiles upon the wife
In readiness strives
There would I be Beneath his humble roof
Nearth for Virginia's sky
Glad Mt Vernon's guest and I
And her fair sons serving nigh

ABOUT INTERVENTION.—The scheme of mediation by the French which has fortunately fallen through receives another interpretation in a letter, of the 2d of December, to the New York Herald and one which is entirely satisfactory if it is correct. The following is an extract, covering the whole subject

Private correspondence received by the late mail gives quite a new and favorable explanation of the motives which have actuated the French government in its communication with Lord Russell on the subject of the late proposed armistice, and leaves no room to doubt of its friendly and disinterested disposition towards us

If we are to trust these letters, the Emperor—instead of lending himself to the selfish advices of those who wish the breaking up of this Union and the weakening of our resources—would have been inspired with the desire of bringing the two sections of this Union together, if possible by means of an armistice mutually consented He seems to have been led to the belief of the realization of such a project by the often repeated utterances of the democratic leaders, at the time of the Pennsylvania election, that a return of the public officers to the spirit and letter of the constitution would secure the reconstruction of the Union, and by the Parliamentary proceedings which took place some time since between Governors Stanly and Vance of North Carolina—proceedings which have been alluded to in the Moniteur, the official paper of the French government, as indicative of a desire of reconciliation between the North and the South It would then, appear, according to this version, that Drouyn de Lhuy's letter has not been published in view of procuring some advantages of securing an independent existence to the South, but in order to see whether a temporary suspension of hostilities would not bring North and South to terms upon the base proposed by Governor Stanly, and hunted at by the democrats of the North

There is another evidence calculated to impress upon our mind the belief that this was really at the bottom of the Emperor's intentions. Persons familiar with diplomatic proceedings say that if Louis Napoleon had entertained the idea that separation would be the unavoidable consequence of a proposition of armistice, this result would have been prepared by the insertion in Drouyn de Lhuy's letter of a clause stipulating (as it is customary in all cases of mediation) that during six months the fleets and armies of the belligerents would withdraw within certain limits and break up the blockade. Instead of this, the document takes care not to allude in any manner to the important point, and expressly states that the mediating Powers will not interfere with the negotiating parties unless requested by them to do so, indicating thereby that no pressure of any kind will be exercised upon the North to compel it to relinquish its right upon the South.

HOW THEY WILL BE JUDGED.—The Atlantic Monthly, in speaking of Mr. Lincoln's Administration and the Emancipation Proclamation, says that he and his associates and measures will be judged by the event. We quote the argument on the subject

The President and his immediate associates are placed so high by their talents and their positions that they must be supposed open to the love of fame, and to desire honorable mention in their country's annals, especially as they have to do with matters of such transcendent importance, greater even than those that absorbed the attention of Washington and Hamilton, of Jefferson and Madison, of Jackson and Livingston. It is for themselves to decide what shall be said of them hereafter, and through all future time,—whether they shall be blessed or banned, cursed or canonized. The judgment that shall be passed upon them and their work will be given according to the result, and from it there can be no appeal. The Portuguese have a well-known proverb, that "the way to hell is paved with good intentions"; but it is not the laborers on that broad and crowded highway who gain honorable immortality. The decisions of posterity are not made with reference to men's motives and intentions, but upon their deeds With posterity, success is the proper proof of merit, when nothing necessary to its winning is denied to the players in the world's great games Richmond is worshipped, and Richard detested, not because the former was good and great, and the latter wicked and weak, for Richard was the better and the abler man, but for the reason that the decision was in Richmond's favor on Bosworth Field. The only difference between Catiline and Cæsar, according to an eminent statesman and scholar, is this: Catiline was crushed by his foes, and Cæsar's foes were crushed by him This may seem harsh, but we fear that it is only too true,—that it is in accordance with that irreversable law of the world which makes success the test of worth in the management of human affairs. If Mr. Lincoln and his confidential officers would have the highest American places in after-days as well as to day, let them win those places by winning the nation's battle. They can have them on no other terms. That is one of the conditions of the part they accepted when they took upon themselves their present posts at the beginning of a period of civil convulsion If they fail, they will be doomed to profound contempt In the words of the foremost man of all this modern world, uttered at the very crisis of his own fortunes Napoleon I., in the summer of 1813.—"To be judged by the event is the inexorable law of history"

A Nashville correspondent says that one of the pretty rebel women was so anxious to get a permit to pass through the lines that she even kissed the brave warrior, as she preferred her request He relates, however, that the General had grace given him to be inexorable.

George W Lane, a brother of General Jim Lane of Kansas has been appointed Superintendent of the Mint at Denver, Colorado Territory. His confirmation by the Senate is doubted

A man named Miles Collins was shot and killed at Virginia, Nevada Territory, on the 24th inst, by a man named Burns

The people of Colorado Territory are discussing the question of a State organization.

DEATH OF ABOLITION STAVES.—The Boston Journal says that the Emancipation Proclamation does not abolish the right to hold slaves in any State Its argument which will be found highly original is as follows

Neither the President's proclamation nor any Act of Congress can abolish the institution of slavery in any State where it legally exists without the concurrent action of the State itself Thus if by virtue of the proclamation all the existing slaves in South Carolina are emancipated the right to hold slaves still remains and may be exercised by the people of South Carolina when ever that State is again in the Union The proclamation merely takes from them the slaves they now own and makes freemen of them The right to be their owners is still lawfully enjoyed by at any South Carolina can resume her place in the Union holding these people as slaves It operates as a sequestration of property which, in the nature of the case, will not and cannot be restored, but it neither forbids nor prevents investments in the same kind of "property" in the future It cannot be said that the same kind of property will not exist, and that therefore the right to buy and hold will be a barren right, for it is not proposed to disturb the existing relation in the loyal slave States
